LORD YOU CAN READ EVERYONE'S HEART SHOW US THE ONE YOU HAVE CHOSEN

During the week I received telephone calls inquiring about the election of the new pope. Some callers wanted to know which Cardinal was best suited for the job, another one was asking whether Cardinal Vincent Nichols was getting the job this time. Obviously there has been a lot of excitement, but a lot of ignorance too. The election of the Pope is by no means similar to any of our political elections no matter how democratic they might claim to be.

The Catholic Church is the oldest Institution to hold nomination and elections. The pope is chosen by the cardinal electors in a voting process during the papal conclave. This event occurs after a pope dies or resigns. A Pope is usually chosen from among the cardinals, although any baptised male can be elected. When a candidate achieves two-thirds majority he is chosen and chooses his papal name.

The conclave begins 15 to 20 days after the pope's death. The conclave following Benedict XVI's resignation in 2013 convened 12 days later. The interior of the conclave area inside the palace was formerly divided into small apartments (cellae), one for each cardinal, assigned by lot. Cardinals now reside in the Domus Sanctae Marthae ("St. Martha's House"), a hotel-like building constructed for visiting clergy during the reign of John Paul II.

Extra omnes (Latin: "Outside, all") is the command given by the master of pontifical liturgical celebrations before the cardinals are sealed inside the Sistine Chapel to vote. Only the cardinal electors remain inside the chapel after everyone else, leaves. Strict security measures are taken to ensure the procedure. The cardinal camerlengo seals off the pope's apartment. The area of the papal conclave is also completely sealed off for the duration of the gathering; only the cardinals and their secretaries, the masters of ceremonies, certain other ecclesiastics with specific duties related to the election, doctors, and the service staff may enter. The cardinals are denied access to all news media and are strictly forbidden to use telephones of any type or personal computers. They swear an oath of secrecy, nothing is ever divulged to anyone.

Vote is secret until a candidate has been selected. One ballot is held on the first day of the papal conclave and four on each subsequent day, two in the morning and two in the afternoon. During each ballot, the cardinal electors write the name of the person they have selected on their individual ballot papers. These are collected and tallied in an elaborate process involving three "scrutineers." Each scrutineer reads each vote before passing it to the next scrutineer; the first two scrutineers read each name in silence, and the third scrutineer reads the name out loud and then writes it. The ballot papers are then threaded with a needle, and, in this manner, all of them are kept together for security. After the count, the ballot papers and all related notes are burned in a stove in the chapel. The colour of the smoke passing from a pipe through the roof enables the outside world to know how the voting has gone: when no candidate has received the required majority, the smoke is black; if a new pope has been elected, the smoke is white. The elected Cardinal is formally asked whether he accepts his election and what name he wishes to assume. Upon his acceptance, the news is announced to the world. The senior cardinal deacon appears on the central balcony of St. Peter's and declares, "Habemus papam" ("We have a pope").

MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE:

Second Collection: This week is for Clergy Training Fund.

Vocation & Good Shepherd Sunday is celebrated today. We reflect on the vocations that God has given to all of us, yes God has given us a mission to do in this life or else we would be vagabond creatures without purpose. The Church invites us to pray for vocations in the church (priesthood and religious life) and to support those who God calls into his service.

Two Missionary priests of the Apostles of Jesus will arrive in the Archdiocese to start their missionary work. For the first time in so many years Our Lady of the Angels Parish will have an Assistant Parish priest. I would like to thank you for your determination to support the training of a missionary priest, which, as you can see is bearing fruit to benefit the church. The new priest's name is Fr. Pius Mmanda Junior from the Republic of Tanzania. I thank the Trustees of the Charity 'Apostles of Jesus Missionaries Support UK' who approved the sponsorship of the Visa process which cost about £10,000.00 for both priests.

Lourdes pilgrimage: Kevin Goodyear will be travelling to Lourdes with the Birmingham Pilgrimage on Saturday 24th May. If anyone has any petitions, candle and Mass offerings they wish me to take, please hand them to Steph in the office or post them through the Presbytery letterbox by Thursday 22nd May.

Margaret Cauchi would like to thank everyone who sent condolences and kind thoughts etc for Carmel. She received so many cards and good wishes such that she is unable to thank everyone personally, but she and the whole family are very grateful.

Annual May Procession will take place on Sunday 11th at 4:00pm followed by refreshments in the hall. Please come along and together honor the Glorious Mother of our Saviour.

Vocations Jubilee will be celebrated on May 11th. I will ask young people who admire a life of calling to serve as priests and religious to stand up. It is not those who want to become priests or religious, but those who admire a vocation.

Blessed Carlo Acutis - Tuesday 13th May at 6:00pm. You are warmly invited to Bishop Ullathorne Catholic secondary school, Leasowe's Ave, Coventry CV3 6BH on Tuesday 13th May at 6:00pm. We will be joined by Jacquie Stacey who will share her wealth of knowledge of Carlo's story. There will be a time of Adoration and the opportunity to venerate a relic of Blessed Carlo Acutis, who will become the first millennial saint. The relic, a section of his hair, offers the faithful a unique opportunity to venerate this inspiring young figure who has been hailed as a patron saint for the digital age.

Jubilee Banners in the church were donated to the church by St. Thomas More Catholic Secondary School. I thank Mrs Thomas the headteacher and for all her staff for such great generosity.

RCIA: The final 2 sessions for 2024/25 RCIA group will be 20th May and 3rd June. Please bring your bible to both sessions.

Marriage banns: Oliver Mallett, son of Paul Brock, Beverley Tye and John Tye, would like to marry Boney Saju, daughter of Sajumon K Joseph and Gracy Sajumon. If there is anybody who knows why they should not get married to each other, please let them come and inform the parish priest as soon as possible.
