House/home visit to the sick and housebound or even for just a chat with your priests or deacons are important part of the life of the parish. If you would like to be visited by the parish priest or by any member of the clergy team, please approach anyone of them. Communion to the sick can be arranged by themselves or by the extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist.

Confession of children from St. Anne's Primary School and from Our Lady and St. Joseph's took place in the last week. We were very busy with the confession of our children in preparation for Easter, and for some, for their First Holy Communion. Thanks to the Catechists, teachers and parents who prepared them. It is amazing that children know what sin is and were ready to denounce it.

Christian Network Against Caste Discrimination Conference will be held at the Jesuit Centre 114 Mount Street London W1K 3AH, on Thurs 16th April from 10:30-3:30. Just contact the parish office by email or telephone (during office hours) for the parish bank details or, if you are not already a Gift Aider, collect a Gift Aid Declaration form from the back of church (or the office) and once completed return to the office. Remember, Gift Aiding your donations adds 25% to your donations at no extra cost to you!

Parish Penitential Service: I thank you all for approaching the Sacrament of Confessions last Thursday in large numbers. Just as love is shown by the number of times we say sorry to those we love, so our love of God and hope in his mercy is shown by our reconciliation with him and with one another. The holiness of parishioners is shown not by the number of Holy Communion consumed but by the number of people who confess their sins. For this I'm very grateful.

Customary Prayers Said at St. Anne & St. Joseph

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations Heavenly Father, we ask you to send labourers into your harvest. Inspire, in the hearts of your people, vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life. Bless our families with a spirit of generosity, so that those whom you call have the courage to give themselves to your Church in faith. Through Christ our Lord. Amen,"

Prayer for peace: Almighty and eternal Father, God of wisdom and mercy, whose power exceeds all forces of arms and whose protection in the strong defence of all who trust in thee, enlighten and direct we beseech thee, those who bear the heavy responsibility of government throughout the world in these days of stress and trial. Grant them the strength to stand firm for what is right and the skill to dispel the fears that foment discord. Inspire them to be mindful of the horrors of atomic war for victor and vanquished alike, to seek conciliation in truth and patience, to see in every man a brother and a sister that the people of all nations may, in our day, enjoy the blessings of a just and lasting peace. Conscious of our own unworthiness, we implore thy mercy on a sinful world, in the name of thy Divine Son, the prince of peace, and through the intercession of his blessed mother and all the saints.
